- ☐ All players who will be on my team, including subs, have read the 4v4 PASS Time Cup info document linked above. All of my players agree to abide by the code of conduct and understand the player eligibility rules and requirements.
- ☐ I am signing up as a ringer, and will not be part of any team. I have read the 4v4 PASS Time Cup info document linked above. I agree to abide by the code of conduct and understand the player eligibility rules and requirements.

Discord Usernames

When you put in your team's usernames, signify which players are considered team leads.

Team leads will have the responsibility of managing their team by coordinating scrims, communicating with event organizers, and more. Team leads are expected to respond within a timely manner.

At least one TL is required.

Also, be sure to signify which players are subs. If you have more than 4 players but do not designate any of them as a sub, your application will be denied. Note that subs do not receive any portion of the prize pool.

If you are a ringer, neither distinction is required.

Tempus Profiles

Due to the importance of jumping ability in this gamemode, it is required that all players on a team share their Tempus profile.

To do this, go to Tempus's website, click on "Sign in through Steam" at the top right, and log into the account you will use for the tournament. After you are logged in, click on your name in the top right, and click on My Profile. Copy the URL and paste it in the below box.

If you receive an error, join any Tempus server in TF2 and repeat the process. Otherwise, make a ticket as soon as you submit this form.
